

King County

SAC Roles & Responsibilities Change

SAC meeting
September 7, 2006

Presented by:

Ron Sims

Agenda

- King County Council Action
- SAC Roles and Responsibilities Change
- Discussion about Changed Roles and Responsibilities

King County Council Action

- On 7/24/2006 King County Council passed Ordinance #15559 to amend K.C.C. 2.16
- The amendments change IT Governance roles and responsibilities, including SAC roles and responsibilities

Amended SAC Roles and Responsibilities

- Excerpt from the Legislative File Text Document

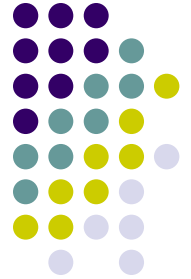

- Deleted sections are indicated in teal font; additions are indicated in red font

- A. The strategic advisory council is hereby created. The council shall act in an advisory capacity to the ((county's chief information officer)) King County executive developing long-term strategic objectives and planning and implementing for information technology deployment countywide. The members shall be((:)) the King County executive, two representatives of the King County council's choosing, the King County sheriff, the King County prosecuting attorney, the King County assessor, the King County chief information officer, the presiding judge of the King County superior court, the presiding judge of the King County district courts, ((an ))up to 8 external advisors from the private sector to be selected by the chair and the chief information officer, each to serve a two-year term, and ((an )) up to two external advisors from the public sector to be selected by the chair and the chief information officer, each to serve a two-year term.
- B. The strategic advisory council shall:
  1. Develop and recommend strategic objectives for information technology deployment countywide;
  2. Review ((business application)) information technology proposals for their alignment with adopted strategic objectives;
  3. ((Review technology program proposals for their alignment with adopted strategic objectives; and
  - 4.)) Review and endorse the information technology strategic plan and all updates to it; and
  4. Review policy-related transmittals to the County Council that are proposed by the King County executive for large countywide information technology projects, such as the business cases.
- C. The King County executive shall serve as the chair of the strategic advisory council.
- D. Formal votes shall be taken and recorded on all recommendations and endorsements.
- E. Members of the strategic advisory council shall serve without compensation.

Summary of Significant Changes

- SAC acts in advisory capacity to the Executive, not CIO
- SAC acts in advisory capacity not only in developing long-term strategic objectives but also in planning and implementing for information technology deployment countywide.
- Added: Review policy-related transmittals to the County Council that are proposed by the King County executive for large countywide information technology projects, such as the business cases

Discussion about Changed Roles and Responsibilities